

The Lazy Days of Summer

May 30, 2010

Wakatanka House will open in August

Come to QWL
and RELAX

It has been two years in the making, but the Wakatanka House is finally complete. Guests will be able to enjoy the inside solarium with Koi pond and waterfall. Here they can relax, read a book or just enjoy the colorful and amusing KOI.

The downstairs area has two accessible suites and a meeting room that can hold 30 people. Both rooms have garden tubs, showers, a kitchenette and a queen size bed. The Native American décor rooms are cool during the summer and warm in the winter.

Upstairs are the Manitou and Sedona rooms. The Manitou room is decorated in Northwest Native design and even has a totem pole. The Sedona room has a southwest flair and includes a sitting area as well as a garden tub, shower and queen size bed.

Both upstairs rooms have a loft area for guests to enjoy the beauty of the outdoors through the cathedral windows in the great room.

Special points of interest:

- Port of Dubuque
- River Museum
- Galena
- Breitbach Restaurant
- Mines of Spain
- Eagle Point

Come and Experience the Difference

Money is tight .... Take a break with us!

During the month of July, Quiet Walker Lodge is offering a 20% off on all rooms. Enjoy the summer nights around the outdoor fire pit or bring fixings to prepare a barbecued dinner on our massive grill.

The shade of the massive trees provides a backdrop for an evening stroll or just sitting out on the deck and enjoying nature.

Heritage trail is only moments away and provides a great walking experience for those who like to hike. Or if you prefer Breitbach Family Restaurant is a few minutes up in Balltown.

So take a break and get a great deal during the month of July!